

BERT FULLER ARRESTED

Well Known Chauffeur Is Arraigned in Justice Court Charged With Serious Offense.

Bert Fuller, a chauffeur, was arrested Monday night on a complaint sworn to by Ethel Watson of 47 South Third West street, charging Fuller with a serious offense. Fuller was arraigned before Justice Court at 10 o'clock this morning and was released on $200 bail. The date of the trial was not fixed.

Miss Watson when seen at her home declined to say anything whatever concerning the case. Fuller emphatically denied that there was any truth in the charges made. He said that the subject of marriage had been broached to him by friends of the young lady, but that he declined to consider the proposition.

"I am not contemplating marriage at any time," said Mr. Fuller, "and I certainly would not consider it in the present case. I can only say that I will deny the charges that have been made against my character."

"I met Miss Watson last summer at the Saltair depot in a somewhat unconventional manner. I took her and her niece, who was with her, for an automobile ride. After that I became well acquainted with her and took her out automobile often for about two weeks. After that I saw her only occasionally."

"I don't want anything that I may say to be construed as against the young lady's character."

ACQUITTAL IS EXPECTED

Judge Henderson Says Opinion Seems to Be Universal That Mrs. Bradley Will Be Found Not Guilty.

Judge H. P. Henderson, one of the witnesses in the Bradley trial, is firmly convinced that Mrs. Bradley will be acquitted of the charge of murdering Senator Arthur Brown. Judge Henderson turned yesterday from Washington and Jamestown, where he has been for the better part of a month.

"The feeling seems to be general that Mrs. Bradley will be acquitted," said Judge Henderson last evening. "The sentiment is all that way, but, of course, one can never foretell the outcome of a trial. The feeling seems to be that Mrs. Bradley was the wronged party in this instance."

"Are the people of Washington taking much interest in the trial?"

"Well, yes; but the interest is not so general as one might be led to believe by reports."

Judge Henderson was one of the delegates appointed by the governor to attend the exercises on Utah day at the Jamestown exposition. "The day was a success in every way," said he, "and we were treated royally."

BIG DEMAND FOR TURKEYS.

"There is no financial stringency reflected in the sale of Thanksgiving turkeys," said Harry W. Hargren of the Utah Poultry company. "The demand is heavier than last year, even at advanced prices. The Utah crop of turkeys is very good this season and large shipments have come in from the east. The average weight for family use is ten pounds and the wholesale demand indicates that the public has the price. I do not believe there will be any hard times shadow over the Thanksgiving festivities this year."

Friends Enjoy Supper With Newton Boyd and Bride.

Newton Boyd, one of the mining men who made a fortune in the Ely copper district and other mineral regions of Nevada, was given a supper last night in honor of his marriage on Monday to Miss Lena Weber of Kansas City, at the home of Rev. D. Arthur Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, 116 West Fourth Street. Those present, beside Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, were John Weber, an Ely pioneer, Mrs. Weber, J. B. ("Big Sam") Simpson, Mrs. Simpson and children.

Mr. Boyd came to Salt Lake to meet Miss Weber, who journeyed from Kansas City. Miss Weber is a niece of Tom Johnson, who was prominent among the active men in the Ely district in the early days.

DISCREDIT IDENTIFICATION.

The attempt to fasten the Wilson hotel holdup on Joe Donovan, one of the six suspects captured by the police after some clothing had been stolen from a Chinaman at 189 Commercial street, has failed because several of the men who saw the highwayman when he committed the robbery at the Wilson hotel have examined Donovan and have declared that he is not the robber.

While the bandit was leaving the saloon his mask fell from his face. Several persons, in that way, had a good look at the man who committed the robbery. One of those who saw the bandit only while masked identified Donovan as the man.
